

Danielle Scheurer, MD, MSCR is an adult Hospitalist physician and Chief Quality Officer at the Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) Health System. She completed undergraduate studies at Emory University, medical school at The University of Tennessee, Memphis, and her combined Medicine-Pediatrics training at Duke University. She then joined MUSC as a Hospitalist, and completed her Masters in Clinical Research. She then practiced as a Hospitalist and Medical Director of the Inpatient Medicine Services at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston for 5 years, before returning back to MUSC in 2010. She is also a certified trainer in Just Culture and TeamSteps, is a Lean-Six Sigma Black Belt, a Baldrige National Examiner, and is a certified mediator. As Chief Quality Officer, she oversees all Quality, Safety, Population Health, Patient Experience, and Regulatory efforts for the Health System.